

Website Privacy Policy

We respect and are committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to our website. For this reason, we have adopted this Privacy Policy. This Privacy Policy will inform you on how your personal information is processed and used by Michindoh. We make the promise that we will take the necessary steps to use your personal information only in ways that are compatible with this Privacy Policy. The following policies are only in effect for the webpages, online applications, forms, and newsletters owned and operated by Michindoh.

What Information We Collect and How It Is Used

Every computer connected to the Internet is given a domain name and a set of numbers that serve as that computer's Internet Protocol Address (IP Address). When a visitor requests a page or file from the Michindoh website, our servers automatically recognize that visitor's domain name and IP address. The domain name and IP address reveal nothing personal about you other than the IP address from which you have accessed our site. We use this information to examine our traffic in website analytics software applications. We do not collect and evaluate this information for specific individuals. Our servers do not automatically record the email addresses of our website visitors.

When a visitor accesses and completes our online forms, camp and retreat registrations, and/or contact us request, this data is collected and transmitted securely across the internet for processing. The data may be stored electronically on our server, on the server of a third party affiliate (e.g. email server, website domain, registration processing, electronic form processing, etc.), or printed and stored on-site at Michindoh. We will never share, sell, or rent individual personal information unless ordered by a court of law. Information submitted to us is only available to employees managing this information for purposes of contacting you or providing a service to you based on your submitted online form(s) or registration, or by our third party affiliates who maintain online services on our behalf who have privacy agreements on file with Michindoh.

Data Protection

Any form that is designed to collect Personal Identifiable Information (PII) or Personal Health Information (PHI) is hosted with 256-bit SSL encryption, including data encryption at rest. All web platforms are secured and HTTPS login with complex passwords and automatic system logoff. Michindoh requires BAA agreements for any third party processor.

Other Information about Online Privacy

The Michindoh website may contain hyperlinks to third party websites that are not providing specific online services on behalf of Michindoh, such as registration or form processing. In most cases, these links will open new browser windows. Michindoh is not responsible for the content of the websites these links follow, nor is Michindoh responsible for the privacy practices of these websites. Michindoh does not share individual personal information you provide with these third party websites. Please reference the privacy policies of these websites to determine their privacy practices.

Whenever you voluntarily disclose personal information online — for example through email, web-based forms and applications, as well as many additional ways — Michindoh collects this information on its computing systems or the computing system of one of our third party affiliates. Ultimately, you are solely responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your personal information. Please be careful and responsible whenever you're online.

Consent to This Agreement

By visiting and using the Michindoh website you agree and consent to the collection and use of information by Michindoh as specified above. If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.

At any point during your visit with us, if you have any questions concerning your privacy, please feel free to contact us at 517.523.3616 or GS@michindoh.com.
